FOLLET

AOC Terrasses du Larzac

2018 vintage: AOC Languedoc Montpeyrroux

Limpid robe with purple glints. A spicy nose starring clove, fresh figs, and almonds invigorated by a whiff of menthol. Straight and fresh on the palate, supple tannins proving a solid structure for dark chocolate and cherry flavors till the satisfying raspberry-tinged finish.

40- to 60-year-old vines: Syrah, Carignan and Grenache on clay-limestone and Cinsault on sandy limestone.

Traditional winemaking. Hand-harvested and sorted.

Destemmed. Vatting by gravity. Aged over 30 months in steel and concrete tanks.

10 €

Domaine Terre de Feu is an organic* winery with seven hectares of old vines spread over the appellations Languedoc Montpeyrroux and Terrasses du Larzac.

Harvested by hand, our wines benefit from an exceptional terroir, the variety of a vineyard with widely strewn plots, and the open-minded approach of a vintner from overseas who combines the best of traditional practice with innovative or rediscovered methods.

The name of our winery - literally: 'Earth of Fire' but also 'Fireland', as in Tierra del Fuego - is a word-play on the double meaning of Terre de Feu, evoking both the heat of the soil baking under the fierce Mediterranean sun and the Argentine origins of its winemaker.

Gonzalo Amigo takes care of all the work in the cellar and vines himself, helped by his wife Kathrin for admin, marketing and sales.
