GLACE

IGP Pays d'Oc

Pearly pale rose gold robe. Complex floral, peach and citrus notes announcing a harmonious balance between mineral freshness and rich red fruit flavors with an addictive salty finish.

40- to 60-year-old vines: Cinsault and Carignan on clay-limestone.

Traditional winemaking. Hand-harvested and sorted. Direct pressing. Vatting by gravity. Low-temperature fermentation in stainless steel tanks.

Domaine Terre de Feu is an organic* winery with seven hectares of old vines spread over the appellations Languedoc Montpeyroux and Terrasses du Larzac.

Harvested by hand, our wines benefit from an exceptional terroir, the variety of a vineyard with widely strewn plots, and the open-minded approach of a vintner from overseas who combines the best of traditional practice with innovative or rediscovered methods.

The name of our winery - literally: 'Earth of Fire' but also 'Fireland', as in Tierra del Fuego - is a word-play on the double meaning of Terre de Feu, evoking both the heat of the soil baking under the fierce Mediterranean sun and the Argentine origins of its winemaker.

Gonzalo Amigo takes care of all the work in the cellar and vines himself, helped by his wife Kathrin for admin, marketing and sales.
